

Dear nonprofit leaders,

Thanks for taking the time to review our Team 316 video. We feel this is a powerful fundraising idea, and we have helped other groups exceed their previous fundraising totals. Our desire at Team 316 is to partner with as many nonprofits as possible to positively impact as many lives as possible. We ask that you will give this strategy a try and see how it can serve your organization.

Below is a short summary of the favorable points we expressed in the video. Please do not hesitate to contact us if we can answer any question or concern at all. We realize the value of a slow “yes” rather than a fast “no,” so we hope you’ll pray over this idea if you feel the need to do so.

It’s our sincere hope that this would expand your group’s impact for your cause. We are all in this together.

*Sincerely,
Greg Griffin and Jason Scott
The Team 316 Guys*

Team 316 Video Summary

Team 316 is a solution that works — it’s tried and true, and we’ve worked out all the kinks for you.

No risk or upfront cost to the nonprofit to try out the idea.

The funds can be used for any stated purpose.

There is only one fundraiser needed — supporters won’t be “nickel-and-dimed” all year long for stuff they don’t want or need. Team 316 will streamline and synergize the fundraising energy into one concise, effective effort.

Team 316 makes sense to supporters because they see a more direct tie to their gift.

Your supporters are already giving to support the current fundraisers even though they may resent the current methods being used. Team 316 is a better way.

We have created a tool chest of promotional resources for customized use — all the tools have been planned out and are ready to use.

Why not at least give Team 316 a try? We can say for certain it will positively impact your work.

We're all in this together.
